

Give your Christmas cards a second life!

Donate them here
for upcycling

The fronts of the cards (the art and decorative parts) are all that are needed, so you're welcome to remove the back (which may include personal notes or private information) or let the upcyclers do that for you.

This collection box will be available for your contributions until January 31, 2015.